

STAR HEALING INTERGALACTIC ENERGY™ CLIENT/HEALER TESTIMONIALS

The Ascension Energy Attunement

Kelly Hampton, founder 2010

Updated Jan. 2011

I believe this treatment is amazing and has left me totally calm, I do feel different, can't quite say how, but something has changed inside me. I have not taken a drink since last Saturday, normally if (something personally dramatic) had happened I would have hit the bottle but felt no need to! I am elated. I am going out this evening with a friend, don't know if I will have a drink or not, but do not feel pressurized at all. All I can say is this has been life transforming for me and I do feel stronger every day, I can't thank you enough. Believe this treatment is amazing and has left me totally calm.

I have done Star Healing. I felt real physiological changes after each session, with markedly improved energy, digestion, and mental cognition afterwards. There were even changes in my vision and I do not need my eyeglasses as much, anymore! I had serendipitous meetings with more people afterwards, who are changing my life for the better, and reinforce the messages from AAMichael....There are many more positive changes but the ones I just mentioned are most awesome!

I can't believe the tumor in my breast has shrunk about 1/2 since I had my session! I've had many powerful healings but nothing like this. Thank you! Thank you!

I would like to thank Kelly, AAMichael and the Pleiadian galaxy for the gift of becoming a certified practitioner. I feel proud to be part of the group of light workers who are doing this work. My heart is open, my world is beautiful and I have found peace x

My neck pain is completely gone!

I personally experienced two miracles in one month. I was taken to Herbs and Angels in Johnston RI by my wife... The first time I met Linda, (a certified Star Healing Practitioner) I was experiencing pain that only another person who has had kidney stones can understand. The stress in my life was overwhelming. She came to me and ask if she could do an energy healing on me with Archangel Michael... we returned to her store for a group Star Healing.... As I remained seated with my eyes closed, I could feel my left kidney being poked by some force. I was scheduled for surgery in 3 days and the doctor said the X-ray showed a large 7 mm stone. This is where it gets interesting. The stone dropped and I went to the emergency room. The hospital put me on morphine to calm the pain. After 3 hours they decided to take another CAT scan before doing the surgery. The doctor came to me and said the stone was gone and I had to have past it. I told the doctor it never happened. When you pass a stone, the after effect is lots of blood. Not a drop in my case. He could not explain it. On the second CAT scan it showed multiple stones in the right kidney. This would require different surgery 2 weeks later. I had a star healing done by Linda one week later and had the kidney stone procedure done with absolutely no pain. NEVER took one pain killer. The doctor prescribed (another drug prescribed for pain) and said I would need them. Not one pill or one ounce of blood after the procedure. My past experiences 12 different kidney stone surgeries have all been painful and disabling. I could have returned to work the following day. I feel the angels are with me all the time.

I received Star Healing from Sarah in the UK & it was the most profound form of healing I have ever come across! It is a very creative and expressive form of healing. It made me think that humans are beautiful cosmic art forms that the healing was a performance in which we are being built into angels. I felt revitalized, refreshed and inspired. Highly recommend to all. Thank you for teaching it!

I am so grateful to you and Archangel Michael for my healing. I hope you can understand my joy at not feeling anxious at all anymore. This is how I have felt most of my life. To be free of this brings tears to my eyes. I am so very grateful.

I would like to thank Leanne (UK) for my Star Healing. What a wonderful experience. I have had many treatments over the past 35 years but none as powerful or profound as this one! I would recommend everyone to try one. Thank you once again I feel great.

I just wanted to share with you this comment from my 18yr old step son after his Star Healing last night. It's a reminder that we must not forget the younger generation as we have much to learn from them. Star Healing Intergalactic Energy is officially cool ;)

This was the most unbelievable experience I have ever had and would recommend it if someone has any problems with fear or anything like that have this treatment and it will sort it right out for you! Thank you very much.

So many changes have happened since I saw you. I will try to fit it all in here. lol. My confidence level has grown immensely. I don't walk around feeling stupid embarrassed, ashamed, less than or not good enough anymore. I keep meeting more people who are becoming dear friends. I feel so confident with massage. I will be graduating in Nov. Have no idea where I'm going yet but I've asked for help and it will happen. I'm getting better about speaking up not staying silent all the time. I still have a little jealousy and mistrust at home but I am getting better about that. I know it might be silly but a big improvement for me.

I'd like to thank you again for the experience I had with you and AA Michael. It has been a great growing experience for me during and following the Star Healing. I had such tremendous lucid dreaming afterwards that all had to do with re-writing my past that I couldn't believe it! It all had to do with past boyfriend/old crushes and every dream gave me a new perspective on these old relationships, really old relationships like grammar school crushes that I didn't think anything about anymore, but seemed to still be apart. I feel so much lighter now as I continue my spiritual journey.

I wanted to share a couple of things that have happened since Star Healing with Kelly. My insight has increased, I have started studying again, it's a 2 year course Diploma of Counseling, and I love it and feel confident that I will be successful with it. My dreams have been amazing, and I feel so much more LOVE. I have had amazing changes in my relationships. Thank you so much Kelly and AA Michael.

Had my first star healing with Leanne in the UK a week ago (2011). The session itself made me feel fantastic, very relaxed and felt all anxieties wash away. Since then I have felt no pain in my knees, one of the areas worked on, and have felt calm and relaxed, more able to deal with situations. Thank you for the help you have given me, can't wait for my next session!

I've had my first Star Healing last Thursday night... I've stopped taking my anti depressants which I was very frightened of doing but after I've weaned my way of them for past few weeks I've felt the strength to stop them completely, I feel less anxious and very relaxed.. Highly recommended

I am writing to give you an update on my progress. Well, so far, what I have noticed is that I have not had a headache since the journey and also my lower back pain that I used to have is no longer there either thanks to the healing and I want to say thank you to you and to Archangel Michael for the healing.

Since my healing session my life long vertigo has vanished!

My hair is no longer falling out in clumps and my gums stopped bleeding without me doing anything after my session with Kelly.

I've been monitoring how I've been feeling since the healing with Kelly and I'm happy to report that I've been feeling GREAT ever since. I've been feeling consistently calm, peaceful, happy, and optimistic. I feel like it's much easier to connect to Source energy and have been feeling a pleasant tingling sensation up and down my spine. I have significantly more energy than I've had in weeks, despite the fact that I haven't had much sleep lately.

Thanks so much again for giving me the experience. I've felt a Michael presence all day today. He is typically in my prayers, but today feels like more of a presence. Even though I have noticed that I have felt very heavy today. It could be I didn't get very much sleep last night. That seems to be common for me after I've gone through some big spiritual experience. It looked like I had fireworks going off inside my head each time I was about to fall asleep. I had lots of bright colors, and white lights, that would show up just as I was about to fall asleep. At one point I had a huge spiders web, which reflected rainbow colors. I thought this was really interesting because I remember you making a spider web above my head, which was also where Michael said I have a rainbow halo. I just couldn't believe all the bright lights and how big everything all was, like a grand finale of fireworks!

I had Star Healing Intergalactic Energy this morning from a practitioner in the UK. It was a truly amazing experience! I have never experienced such deep relaxation, peace, calm & love before! It was very emotional & deeply uplifting. I felt all issues I no longer needed being released to make way for love, peace and serenity. Thank you Kelly & Archangel Michael for introducing this wonderful gift to the world x

I have been trying to do some homework on the geometric diamond that Michael had spoke about during my session with Kelly. So far I had come across sacred geometry, which I have found interesting, which also led me back to the sunflower which Michael said I should have some around. I completely forgot that I have a large light black and white photo in my bedroom that I look at everyday; and also a wreath that I had made out of sunflowers that my mother-in-law had. I had never met her, only seeing her once a day or two before she passed. My husband and I met six weeks before she passed away and I believe there was more at work besides us meeting by accident.

Can things get any better? Had a beautiful Star Healing (as a practitioner) this morning that lasted an hour and a half without even noticing. Whilst rocking the baby after experiencing slight tiredness in my arms, I had my left hand by my side and felt it being held, I did not see I just knew and felt very overwhelmed and emotional that I was being given support and guided. How lucky I feel for all the wonderful experiences Star Healing is bringing me.

(Since my healing session) I am definitely more aware of my energy body-- that seems to be increasing all the time. I am also more aware of other's energy and starting to be able to separate out their feelings from my own.

I did Journey one in Rhode Island on the 7th of July at Herbs and Angels and I am writing to give you an update on the healing I received; First. I want to say that I have not had a headache since the healing and also I have not had any lower back pain since the healing! Also I want to thank you and Archangel Michael. I look forward to seeing you again.

It's Karen and I had (a healing session) three weeks ago. The day of our session I felt wonderful, peaceful, and relaxed. After that I slowly began to "purge" all sorts of emotions-- anger, sadness, negativity. As I mentioned in my 24 hour email to you three weeks ago I have spent my life not being allowed to express my emotions so this "purging" felt strange. The marshmallows and chocolate put into my back amazes me. I don't crave sugar or chocolate the way I used to and I don't feel the need to overstuff myself with food when I am stressed! I have been receiving messages to clean up my diet and take care of my body for awhile and now I feel on the road to actually doing it. With the emotional purging behind me I feel healthier. I have taken my power back and don't seem to be bothered by others negativity, judgmental people or bullies. I see them as people who are hurting and need love and acceptance.

Wow!! I could not rest till 1.30am when the wonderful uplifting vibration (after my session) that I felt calmed down. I had the most beautiful dream where I was surrounded by pure white selenite crystal and told Sarah this is your stellar gateway and it is open. Then saw a multitude of key codes which were like stars mapped out and joined together! Colors were beautiful! This morning though very tired, my skin feels new, my body rejuvenated and I feel at great peace. What a wonderful experience.... I almost forgot the wonderful beehive structure that was built was very significant for me as I am at present studying a bee course so my husband and I can have hives at our farm to help preserve the honey bee. Bees resonate a beautiful vibrational sound and use a form of dance for communication. But the most amazing thing about bees is how they build their colony in their sacred geometric combs and work together!

I am longer worried about my health anymore and feel a sense of rebirth like God has helped me to heal through Star Healing Intergalactic Energy.

I would like to thank Kelly and AAM for Star Healing. I received a life changing experience yesterday which has helped me realize what I have been missing out on all my life by trying to be someone others want me to be.

I have just had a Star Healing treatment from Leanne Jarvis who is based in the UK. While I was having the treatment my arthritic knee seemed to have a life of its own. Before the treatment the pain I was feeling was affecting my life, immediately after the treatment the pain had subsided. Four hours later my whole body feels lighter, I feel relaxed and my knee is pain free.

I was filled with a sense of peace, calm and love from Michael. The next day at work, I had an overwhelming feeling of being loved. The sky was filled with big white and gray fluffy clouds, and as I looked at them from my office window, directly in front of me was a perfect heart shape of blue sky framed with white clouds! I really felt like Michael was showing me his love. Thank you so much.

Since Jessica met Joe about 7 years ago, he's suffered from redness and heat behind his ears. The redness and heat have completely disappeared as of (the healing) and so has his neck pain. He also says he feels a lot lighter.

(From a practitioner) I heard back from my volunteer who I have done other healing work on for her breast cancer tumor. She was so excited to tell me that in 24hrs. The size of her tumor had shrunken in half! I am so excited for her! I have been using other healing techniques on her without as much success, until now. Will follow up in 3 weeks to see if another attunement to rid her of it totally is necessary and something she is open to.

Kelly, the energy is amazing! So much to tell you~ Again, thank you Angel Michael and Kelly for wonderful energy works. This light is all and other who keep things positive. Blessings and peace. (I am) back on track.

My chronic neck pain is gone. I can't tell you how grateful I am to you and AAMichael!

I am still not smoking after two months. I owe this all to my session! It is soooo amazing. Thank you!

About 2 and a half weeks later (after my Star Healing session) I noticed that my appetite changed. I got full where in the past I would just keep eating until I was sick. I kept quiet watch and still. I am getting full like a normal person. Plus, the person in my life who revolves around this "void" stirred up some old issues. Instead of being bullied, like I had done in the past, causing me to keep things inside, get thyroid problems, I had the strength to simply LET GO. This is a healing of MAJOR proportions. I feel as if the session filled my emptiness with the Love I was looking for, and also gave me the strength to move on. I had never been able to do this before. I still have the nail picking, but it is lessening more and more.

My TMJ no longer bothers me and my migraines are gone. Amazing!

Thank you so very much. Dear Archangel Michael. Thank you profoundly for all you did for me, my family and for presenting yourself to my son when he was 8. I have the utmost respect and admiration for you. Please continue to teach me and my family about the Love, strength and spiritual wisdom that we deserve. I am very proud to be a Light worker under your counsel.

I would like to update that I have stopped smoking for over two months now. All thanks to your treatment session. Love and light."

The healing that I received has been "Awesome". Each day seems to build off the other. Stress seems to be gone! In addition to that I feel great!

I had a little over 2 hours drive home and I made a stop along the way. I wasn't scared driving the curvy roads by myself. I sometimes get anxious to get to a main highway but I was totally fine. You also released anxiety and claustrophobia.

Hi Kelly, giving you a report on how I've been in the last 24 hrs. and how the session went for me. At the beginning of the session I felt as though I was being lifted several inches off the table, I could feel a flow circulating through me, kind of a sparkly flow, a feeling of being energized. In the second half of the healing I felt heat and general sense of well-being. Afterwards I had a surge of energy, and I was very hungry, even after I'd eat something, as if my body was craving more. I also experienced hearing tonal sounds in my left ear. I wasn't sure I'd be able to drift off to sleep but as soon as my head hit the pillow sleep came and it was a very deep, restful sleep, something I haven't experienced in awhile. Today I've had lots of energy and time has been doing some tricks on me, when I think only 5 min. has gone by it's actually been a half hour or more, and then other times it reverses. I myself feel as if in a speedy mode, like a surge of Life energy is pulsing through me.

While driving home last night, which was a 1 1/2 hr. drive after my healing session I felt so happy and I offered love and kindness to everyone I could think of all the way home. I felt like I was driving home in a tube of white light. This work seems different to me than other energy work because usually when I'm around heaviness I have a hard time shaking it off. This time I just felt surrounded and protected in love.

About 2 years ago I was told I should do Star Healing and I did some research to no avail at that time. It was my pleasure to come across Leanne at the spiritual event held at Hallgarth Hotel yesterday where I received a 15min. taster session. Wonderful! I have been guided by Lord Ashtar during meditation to seek out your help and guidance for this wonderful healing not only to help man/womankind but our beautiful mother earth and galaxies....I am guided by the Angels of Atlantis.

It felt wonderful receiving the energy and healing during yesterday's session Kelly; pure love and peace. Thank you and the angels! Love and gratitude, Stephanie

I could not feel anything but peace and love, this overwhelming love and beauty. Later in the evening, I saw a bird flying not far from me. It was showing me his wings and I heard 'Unfold your wings'. I feel the energy is different. I feel like the energy is also much more fluid. This healing is very powerful.

Things have changed since the healing, some are slower than others but things have changed. It's great! I have been able to gain some more energy and patience during my day, my knees and shoulders do not hurt as much, less headaches, and more assertiveness. So there have been some significant changes, thank you!

I wanted to let u know that since the healing I am feeling great! I feel very calm, easy going, with more patience and at ease. I discovered the wisdom of the sunflower as suggested by Archangel Michael during my session with Kelly and it is beautiful. I also found out the connection of the sunflower with our solar planet. AMAZINGGGGGGGGGG! I also found out that it can be used in healing as an essence. I am very happy and amazed by this!

My energy level is high, I don't feel scattered anymore. I always feel even and just myself not distorted. If those fearful feelings creep up I hear "what is given is never taken away" as declared by Archangel Michael in our session.

So many changes have happened since I saw you. I will try to fit it all in here lol. My confidence level has grown immensely. I don't walk around feeling stupid embarrassed, ashamed, less than or not good enough anymore. I keep meeting more people who are becoming dear friends. I feel so confident with massage. I feel so much lighter now as I continue my spiritual journey.

Another thing that AA Michael had mentioned was for me to get some sunflowers. I did and afterwards began to have really strong connections with my mother-in-law who had passed away before I got a chance to really meet her. I feel like the sunflowers led me in the direction to connecting with her and feeling love and acceptance from her.

I was filled with a sense of peace, calm and love from Michael. The next day at work, I had an overwhelming feeling of being loved. The sky was filled with big white and gray fluffy clouds, and as I looked at them from my office window, directly in front of me was a perfect heart shape of blue sky framed with white clouds! I am no longer stressed out about my job situation...am looking forward to some rest and new opportunities. :)

I felt as if the stars were brighter than I had ever seen as rays of energy were flowing out and down into me.

My son has a good friend who developed encephalitis and had a series of seizures causing permanent brain damage in January. The prognosis has not been good. I as well others have been praying for a miracle, the young boy Brian was moved to a rehab facility but doctors had little hope. Monday night I began to pray for a miracle for Brian's mother for mother's day. I tried to send thoughts of healing energy to Brian and again asked for Archangel Michael's help. Tuesday night my son told me that he got word that Brian is walking, talking and eating on his own. All of this is a miracle! Prior to this he had a feeding tube, could not speak and was in a wheel chair.

I am starting to have the ability to "figure" people out. I don't know how to put it into words, but basically, if someone is casting out negative thoughts and feelings I acknowledge, but don't judge them. I feel that the universe is exposing them right now.

I feel powerful but in a positive way to promote love , light and forgiveness for the greater good.

This may seem silly but for my entire life one eye has been smaller and squintier than the other. After our session I kept looking in the mirror and now both eyes are brighter and the same size! And my face looks much younger. Not expecting that! Awesome.

I wanted to share some of the experiences that I have had since Star Healing. Do you know how you get those gut feelings? Well I have been experiencing them more and more each day. I will be driving or just listening to people talk and suddenly I know in my head what a person is going to say before they actually say it. I get gut feelings to do or go a certain path and this never happened to me before.

I am no longer anxious about the things that I used to fret over and I am happy every single day!

After healing with you in the days that followed I noticed that I am not afraid to go out to my parked car at night any longer. Thank you!

My hair is no longer falling out in clumps and my gums stopped bleeding without me doing anything.

I've been monitoring how I've been feeling since the healing and I'm happy to report that I've been feeling GREAT ever since. I've been feeling consistently calm, peaceful, happy, and optimistic. I had never met her, only seeing her once a day or two before she passed. My husband and I met six weeks before she passed away and I believe there was more at work besides us meeting by accident.

I was wondering if there was some larger connection between the spider web, diamond and sunflower, Something like the sacred geometry or something. With the geometric diamond I was drawn to the idea that the diamond was two pyramids, I believe with the teaching of "as above-so below", also to help with clarity of a soul quest, which I definitely have been on. And this could be nothing, but soon after I set up some sunflower things in my kitchen and hung the sunflower wreath on our front door we got a call from our realtor to show our house tomorrow. We have been trying to sell it for not too long, but put it out there to Michael and the other angels that we would follow our paths where ever it may lead us. We had put an offer on a house on a larger piece of land with the intention of creating a sanctuary for ourselves and others on the land, but are also settled quite nicely in the home we have now. It just made me think a little more after the sunflowers were out after we hadn't heard from the realtor for several weeks!

I'm really excited to see where the next couple of weeks leads me after the journey one experience. Please let me know if I should follow up with anymore homework or anything. I've enjoyed finding out more information and I look forward to the next journey!

I am definitely more aware of my energy body..that seems to be increasing all the time. I am also more aware of other's energy and starting to be able to separate out their feelings from my own.

I did Star Healing with you in Rhode Island on the 7th of July at herbs and angles and I am writing to give you an update on the Journey one healing i received first I want to say that I have not had a headache since the healing and also i have not had any lower back pain since the healing also i want to thank you and Archangel Michael.

The chocolate and marshmallows AA Michael put in my back yesterday really did the trick. I'm a staffing coordinator for a psychiatric hospital and my job is high stress. Last night it was off the charts wild and I took a quick walk to the vending machines to buy a bottle of water and regroup my thoughts. Normally I would buy a candy bar too but last night I had no desire. That's not normal for me, especially during a high stress night.

I felt so at peace during the Journey so I found it surprising that hours later I would be experiencing feelings of aggressive anxiety. All of my life I have never been safely allowed to voice how I feel and I've swallowed a ton of feelings that seem to be bubbling to the surface. I feel as if I am detoxing 46 years of "stuff" I've "stuffed" and covered with food. I feel once it's over my addiction for overeating will be controlled. It's a scary, yet exciting place to be. The angels have been asking me to take back my power and stop giving it away. I think this is the beginning of that process too.

Kelly, the energy is amazing!

It's Karen and I had Journey 1 three weeks ago. The day of Journey 1 I felt wonderful, peaceful, and relaxed. After that I slowly began to "purge" all sorts of emotions. Anger, sadness, negativity. As I mentioned in my 24 hour email to you three weeks ago I have spent my life not being allowed to express my emotions so this "purging" felt strange. The marshmallows and chocolate put into my back amazes me. I don't crave sugar or chocolate the way I used to and I don't feel the need to overstuff myself with food when I am stressed. I have been receiving messages to clean up my diet and take care of my body for awhile and now I feel on the road to actually doing it. With the emotional purging behind me I feel healthier. I have taken my power back and don't seem to be bothered by others negativity, judgmental people or bullies. I see them as people who are hurting and need love and acceptance.

When you worked on me Kelly for a few minutes you found something on my chest/lungs (some people said it looked like a stone) and AA Michael removed it and I have to say my indigestion has been better.

On Monday, June 6th, I had a Star Healing Session with Julie Kunkel. Julie is awesome! During the session I was told (by Kelly) the meaning of a word that I had been given during a gong bath; acto – Pleiadian for hello. I had been hearing my word more and more, and when I heard it over and over during the Star Healing Session, I knew I had to say something. I was thrilled to be given the meaning, and it's being used to remind me when I need to change my mind & heart view. I hear it often, sometimes just for comfort, as a reminder that I have many friends and helpers, and other times as a gentle encouragement to follow a different path.

There was a lot of release of fear. The session was very healing for me. I received the key codes I was hoping to during my star healing sessions. Thank you! Thank you! I have had several sessions just to receive more spectacular visions of Lemuria, Pleiadian light beings, and so much more to assist me in my work as a Clairvoyant.

My TMJ pain & tenderness is all but gone, no migraines or any headaches, but most importantly the anger you pulled from me (weeding) LOL has not come back. I have never felt so at peace & calm in my entire life. I have had the opportunity to use the keycode Michael gave me and amazingly for me I went right back to that loving peaceful home of crystal mountains, vibrant colors & my most beloved grandfather. I have just finished 2012 beyond and back and currently starting the other book i purchased from you. I have been telling everyone how awesome you are and of my experiences with you. They all are intrigued and want to have sessions with you so when you get bombarded with Okies you will know I sent them.
